SURGE Academy

The SURGE Academy is an on-demand series of programming that gives SURGE entrepreneurs direct access to content, tools, templates, and resources to help grow their business. The academy will help your startup move from concept phase through commercialization. As you work through the content, you will connect with coaches and mentors for more support and accountability. Programs include:

Customer Discovery Program

Customer Discovery is the process of defining and validating core business assumptions based on customer needs. Speaking directly to your potential customers is an important first step to prove that you:

- Have correctly identified your target market.
- Are solving a real pain point for your customer.
- Have a unique value proposition.
- Will have a viable business.

This self-guided program will give you a step-by-step framework to help you launch a business that resonates with your customers and better positions you for success. You will have access to SURGE mentors who will provide feedback and accountability throughout your journey.

First Customer Program

The First Customer Program is designed for early-stage startups that have validated their concept and are ready to start selling. The content is designed as a set of building blocks (offer, pricing, channels, messaging) to help prepare you to acquire your first 10 to 100 customers. You will have access to coaching and accountability throughout the program.

Investor Readiness Program

Accessing capital is one of the most challenging aspects of launching a business. The SURGE Investor Readiness Program prepares entrepreneurs for successful fundraising. You will have access to educational information, pitch coaching, and introductions to investors throughout the region.

Business Basics, Marketing & More!

From launch to acquiring customers, the SURGE Academy offers carefully selected articles, invaluable resources, and real-world insights shared by experienced SURGE entrepreneurs.
